

Department of Civil Engineering
Geetanjali Institute of Technical Studies, Udaipur

CULTURAL ENRICHMENT THROUGH SUNDARKAND RECITAL ON MAKAR SANKRANTI

Name of the event/activity: Musical recitation of the Sundarkand

Academic session: 2024-25

Basic details of the event:

Date & Time: January 14, 2025 (Makar Sankranti)

Place: Civil Seminar Hall, D-Block, Department of Civil Engineering GITS, Udaipur

Organized by: Department of Civil Engineering

Objectives of the program:

To connect students and staff with their cultural and religious heritage through a musical recital of the Sundarkand on Makar Sankranti, promoting spiritual enrichment and unity.

Importance of the Program:

Promotes cultural preservation, moral education, holistic development, and social cohesion in an academic setting.

Photographs of the activity/event:

Outcome of the program

1. Enhanced spiritual awareness and cultural connection.
2. Strengthened community bonding and positive atmosphere.
3. Stress relief and mental rejuvenation.

Vision of Department

Create an academic ambience to develop civil engineering professionals with technical competencies to meet society and industry needs.

Mission of Department

1. To inculcate among students with fundamentals of basic sciences & engineering required for civil engineering.
2. To impart and empower the quality education required for development of the society and industry.
3. To provide state-of-the-art resources that contributes to ethical & congenial learning environment.