

Expert Talk on Women and Leadership
Organized by GITS Women Cell
on International Women's Day

Date: March 11, 2024

Venue: GITS CSE Sem Hall

Speakers:

Dr. Rajshree Gandhi - Social Activist & Retd Bank Manager

Event Highlights:

- Introduction: The GITS Women Cell organized an expert talk on the occasion of International Women's Day, focusing on the theme of "Women and Leadership." The event aimed to inspire and empower students to embrace leadership roles and break gender barriers.

- Campus Director's Address: The Campus Director also addressed the students, highlighting the significance of women's empowerment in academia and beyond. He reiterated the institution's commitment to fostering a supportive and inclusive environment for all students, regardless of gender
- Expert Talk by Dr. Rajshree Gandhi: Dr. Rajshree Gandhi, a renowned social activist and retired bank manager, delivered an insightful talk on women's leadership. Drawing from her extensive experience in both the corporate and social sectors, Dr. Gandhi emphasized the importance of women's representation in leadership positions. She shared inspiring anecdotes and practical advice on overcoming challenges and stereotypes in the pursuit of leadership roles. Dr. Gandhi's talk resonated deeply with the audience, sparking meaningful discussions on gender equality and empowerment.

-
- Cultural Performances: In addition to the expert talks, the event featured captivating performances, including a soulful song rendition, a mesmerizing dance performance, and a thought-provoking poetry recital. These cultural showcases added a vibrant and celebratory atmosphere to the event, further reinforcing the theme of women's empowerment and creativity.

Key Takeaways:

- Women's leadership is crucial for achieving gender equality and driving positive change in society.
- Overcoming gender stereotypes and biases is essential for women to ascend to leadership positions.
- Institutions play a vital role in supporting and nurturing women's leadership potential through inclusive policies and initiatives.
- Cultural expressions such as music, dance, and poetry serve as powerful mediums for conveying messages of empowerment and inspiration.

Overall, the expert talk on "Women and Leadership" organized by the GITS Women Cell provided valuable insights and inspiration for students to strive for leadership excellence and contribute to a more equitable and inclusive future.

